COMPOUNDING SOLUTIONS LAUNCHES COMPOUNDING SOLUTIONS EUROPE

ATHLONE, IRELAND - After 22 years of continued innovation, Compounding Solutions LLC has become a global leader in high-quality medical and industrial compounds. With this growth, Compounding Solutions is proud to announce its new entity, Compounding Solutions Europe.

Based in Athlone, Ireland, Compounding Solutions Europe has the short-term objective of establishing distribution partnerships within the European market. In the long-term, Compounding Solutions Europe will expand its medical distribution and, eventually, provide medical compounding to strengthen its support for its European customer base.

“Over the past several years, CS has experienced high sales growth and an increased European customer base, especially in Ireland. To maintain this growth and improve our local service level, we have launched CS Europe and are excited about the possibilities,” stated Scott Neal, General Manager and Owner.

Compounding Solutions is enthusiastic about this new expansion and its opportunities for the future of Compounding Solutions, its current customers, and future ones.
